When God pours out his love, our parched lives are revived and our thirsty souls satisfied. What is the secret of receiving more of God's love and of giving it freely to others? The book of I John calls us back to the basics of loving God and one another. Do you long to experience God's mercy and goodness in deeper ways and extend them to others? Would you like his love to fill you up to the point where it overflows naturally into the lives of others? This study of I John will help you and your small group experience the refreshing rain of God's love in ways you have always wanted. New Community Series -- a high-impact tool for experiencing the transforming power of God's Word. This cutting-edge series lets you explore life-changing topics from a biblical perspective in community with others in your small group. Challenging questions encourage you to reflect on Scripture and its impact on your life, both as an individual and as part of a community of Christ followers. In the beginning was the WORD; The WORD was with GOD; And the WORD was GOD. GOD IS LOVE 1 John 7-12 7 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. 8 Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. 9 This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. 10 This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. 11 Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12 No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. These are my favorite Bible verses. They deal with God's Love, things that God does not love, the power of faith and, for me, an insight into Jesus's personality. To me, he was really a cool guy. When the crowd was going to stone the woman, he said, according to John, Chapter 8: Verse 7, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her." While the crowd gradually dispersed, he doodled in the sand, waiting. When the men had all gone, he asked the woman, "Where are those who condemned you?" She said, they had all gone, there was no one there to condemn her. Then, as John, Chapter 8: Verse 11, tells us, Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more." So Jesus's handling for sin was not punishment and suffering, but just stop sinning and live righteously. When I read that this time through The Bible, I realized that all those punishments listed in the Old Testament were intended to keep people on the straight and narrow, not to reduce the population. They were intended to prevent sin. As I studied The Bible again, I realized that both the Old and New Testaments speak about God's love. In The Old Testament, Leviticus, Chapter 19: Verse 18, we read, "thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." Again, in Leviticus, Chapter 19: Verse 33, we read, "the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself." The New Testament teaches us, in John, Chapter 4: Verse 8, "He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love." Also in 1 John, Chapter 4: Verse 7, "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God." Further, in 1 John Chapter 4: Verse 11, "Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another." Jesus said, "he who abides in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing." In the letter of 1 John, we read, "he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him." What exactly do these Scriptures mean? How do we "abide" in

Jesus? What is it like to abide "IN Him" and Him IN us? How do we "abide in love?" The first Scriptures we'll study are in John 15, because they are so insightful. Jesus makes it clear what He means by abide in Me and in My love. First, He wants us to love Him/God, and demonstrate our love by obeying His teachings. He wants us to know the Word, to know Him, He is the Word. And when we do, "My words abide in you." We believe the Word and do it. When we abide in Him and His Word, we get to KNOW God better. Jesus said when we abide in Him, and Him in us, we can pray and ask in His name, and it shall be granted. When we abide in His love, which is the fruit of the Spirit, we can truly love the brethren. And without Him we can do nothing. Now let's read the other 58 Scriptures!!! Scripture explains Scripture. So each lesson herein is a paragraph or two of scripture, in context, sorted by themes, where two or more of the words "abide, in Him and/or in love" (and their various synonyms) appear in the same paragraph; followed by four questions. Although each Scripture is in context, it's best if you also read what surrounds these verses. Also included is a short form of The Gospel Message. We cannot abide in Him, and in His love without knowing and responding to the gospel of Jesus Christ. A Small Group Facilitation Guide is also included herein to help home group and bible study leaders host interactive meetings. Appendix A near the back has some Sample Answers. The follow up to this study is, "I BELIEVE in JESUS." Jesus was sent by the Father to earth to give life and eternal life to all those who would believe in Him. We will explore what it means to truly "believe" in Jesus (past, present and until the end). Scripture explaining Scripture. For all you songwriters interested in worship song content, consider the songwriter version of this booklet, "ABIDE in JESUS and in HIS LOVE (Songwriters' Edition)." The scriptures are virtually the same ones used in this book, except that they are followed by different questions and helpful hints to inspire the writing of upwardly focused worship songs. ABIDE in JESUS and in HIS LOVE (Pastors edition) is available for pastors and teachers who create their own inspirational, comprehensive, theme-based, bible sermon series. The Scriptures are the same, but with different research suggestions for sermon preparation. The questions guide students and teacher to focus in on verb phrases (actions) that are in the Truth, use Scripture to explain Scripture, encourage everyone to KNOW God better and be doers of the Word. So that the Word of God will correct, reproof, train and equip believers to be disciples of Jesus Christ. Danny Hodges became the senior pastor of a young church fellowship known as Calvary Chapel in St. Petersburg, Florida, in April of 1984. Three years later when he was introduced to Pastor Chuck Smith and the Calvary Chapel movement, he felt an immediate sense of being at home and was grateful to God for leading him to this network of churches that upheld a simple, biblical philosophy of ministry and well-balanced doctrine. Calvary Chapel St. Petersburg soon became a fellowship of Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa, and since that time God has steadily grown the ministry from a handful of mostly young single adults to a large church full of families. It has been exciting to see God's Spirit bring many to salvation through Jesus Christ, see lives change and mature in the Lord, see relationships bloom and grow, see ministries evolve and prosper, see a hunger for the Word of God and see a passionate desire to win the lost to Jesus. Pastor Danny and his wife, Wendy, consider it an honor to serve this growing body of believers together with their four children, Tanner, Hayden, Jairus and Audra. Lessons from the letter of 1 John: understand the fullness of God's love and how it's meant to be lived out. More than any other New Testament writer, John wrote about love. He was one of Jesus' closest disciples, and his first letter is both challenging and comforting—but, ultimately, it's about living out (and living into) God's unconditional, extravagant, lavish love. In this Bible study, Wendy Blight walks you through 1 John, taking you deeper into an understanding of God's love and what that love means for you, daily... "I always knew in my head God loved me. But it wasn't until I opened the pages of 1 John that I truly experienced His love down to the depths of my soul. Exposing my heart to God's love through John's eyes transformed my heart and life in ways I could never have imagined."

—Wendy. This study will help you: Develop a more intimate understanding of God's love. Transform your attitude and actions into reflections of God. Identify and discern God's truth from false teaching. Confront barriers keeping you from experiencing God's complete love. Boldly and confidently walk as a woman loved. Study guide includes biblical and historical background insights, practical application, group discussion questions, and a memory verse for each chapter. Perfect for both individuals or small groups. Inscribed is a collection of studies that lead women to not just survive but thrive by encouraging them to immerse themselves in the Word of God. In this "brave and heartbreaking novel that digs its claws into you and doesn't let go, long after you've finished it" (Anna Todd, New York Times bestselling author) from the #1 New York Times bestselling author of All Your Perfects, a workaholic with a too-good-to-be-true romance can't stop thinking about her first love. Lily hasn't always had it easy, but that's never stopped her from working hard for the life she wants. She's come a long way from the small town where she grew up—she graduated from college, moved to Boston, and started her own business. And when she feels a spark with a gorgeous neurosurgeon named Ryle Kincaid, everything in Lily's life seems too good to be true. Ryle is assertive, stubborn, maybe even a little arrogant. He's also sensitive, brilliant, and has a total soft spot for Lily. And the way he looks in scrubs certainly doesn't hurt. Lily can't get him out of her head. But Ryle's complete aversion to relationships is disturbing. Even as Lily finds herself becoming the exception to his "no dating" rule, she can't help but wonder what made him that way in the first place. As questions about her new relationship overwhelm her, so do thoughts of Atlas Corrigan—her first love and a link to the past she left behind. He was her kindred spirit, her protector. When Atlas suddenly reappears, everything Lily has built with Ryle is threatened. An honest, evocative, and tender novel, It Ends with Us is "a glorious and touching read, a forever keeper. The kind of book that gets handed down" (USA TODAY). The ESV Study Bible was created to help people understand the Bible in a deeper way. John MacArthur shows, first that obedience to God is not an issue of legalism, but an issue of love. In his second chapter, he deals with the inevitable response of people who are confronted with Biblical standards, "Judge not that ye be not judged." Here MacArthur shows what our Lord meant when He said that, and shows what biblical discernment really is, that there is a vast difference between judgmental and holding people accountable to God's standards. Phil Johnson, in his first chapter, deals with Christian liberty. In his second chapter, he takes a critical look at two kinds of legalism, then explores the relationship of Christian love and Christian liberty. Joel Beeke shows that enthusiasm for God's law is not necessarily legalism. One can be zealous without being legalistic. As David wrote: "Oh, how I love Thy Law!" Bruce Bickel explains that legalism is due to a weak understanding of what Christ accomplished on the cross. Jim Elliff makes clear that legalism is an attack on unity within the Body of Christ, particularly local congregations. Ken Talbot helps us to see that legalism is inconsistent with and incompatible with the doctrine of justification by faith alone. He points out that the doctrine of "free will" leads to this dangerous position. Rick Phillips explores the relationship to loving God and obeying His law. Some today believe that love is all that matters, and that the law as a guideline to love is extinct. Then this author shows that Biblical sanctification is the antidote to and the opposite of legalism. Steven J. Lawson shows that legalism is the result of holding to man-made traditions over the truth of God's Word. Second, he points out how dangerous and deadly a thing legalism is and why. What Freedom From the Law Accomplishes For the Local Church - Jim Elliff 13. Biblical Sanctification: The Antidote to Legalism - Richard D. Philips This document's purpose is to spell out the Church's understanding of the nature of revelation--the process whereby God communicates with human beings. It touches upon questions about Scripture, tradition, and the teaching authority of the Church. The major concern of the document is to proclaim a Catholic understanding of the Bible as the "word of God." Key elements include: Trinitarian structure, roles of apostles and bishops, and biblical reading in a historical context. a Christian to develop from believing, to knowing, to then becoming convinced; not only in their general faith, but also in the individual truths within God's Word. The repeated refrain of Psalm 136 is that God's love endures forever. In the words of Samuel Francis's hymn, the 'deep, deep love of Jesus' is 'vast, unmeasured, boundless, free ... rolling as a mighty ocean ... full of blessing'. Indeed, 'God is love' (1 John 4:8, 16). This is one of the most wonderful statements in the Bible. It is a revelation of the very heart of God. However, it is also a statement that can be misunderstood or distorted when it is made to conform to cultural assumptions. With wrong definitions of love pressing in upon us, it is urgent that we rightly discern the true, biblical revelation of God's love. Garry Williams offers a form of inoculation against mistaken accounts that flatten the differences between divine and human love. He sets out these differences by interpreting God's love in the midst of his trinitarian life and other divine attributes. In each chapter, doctrinal exploration is followed by a meditation that asks questions and invites spiritual reflection, and then by a closing prayer. Know Love for Kids is a four-week Bible study on the Letters of 1, 2, and 3 John, ideal for children between five and eleven-years-old. Designed as a companion study with Know Love: A Study on 1, 2, 3 John, this Love God Greatly study journal contains a four-week reading plan through the Letters of 1, 2, and

3 John. Also included is the entire text of 1, 2, and 3 John, pages for reflecting on daily and weekly lessons, and coloring and activity pages. The apostle John had one clear message in his letters: Love one another. In the letters of 1, 2, and 3 John, this disciple who Jesus dearly loved encouraged followers of Jesus to love God by obeying His commands. He also told Christians to go above and beyond by showing love and being kind and respectful to fellow believers. John's message is helpful to us today, showing us how to live like Jesus lived and love like Jesus loved. Finding true joy in our lives comes from knowing Jesus. When we know and love Jesus, we know His love. Know Love for Kids is a Love God Greatly study journal designed to help children grow in their faith. Strong and committed in her faith-but frustrated by the inconsistencies she saw in her evangelical culture's view of women-Rachel Held Evans became an independent woman. But, intrigued by the traditionalist resurgence that led many of her friends to abandon their careers to assume traditional gender roles in the home, Evans had a crazy idea: What if I took "biblical womanhood" literally for a full year? In the next twelve months Rachel: Wore a scarf over her head to pray Called her husband "master" and stood on the roadside with a sign that said "Dan is Awesome" Adopted a computerized baby Perched on the roof for an afternoon of penance for gossiping Camped out in her front yard during her period Visited an Amish schoolhouse, a pig farm in Bolivia, and a Benedictine monastery Took up baking and knitting Interviewed a polygamist, a Quiverfull daughter, and a courtship couple With just the right mixture of humor and insight, Evans takes readers along with her on a lively adventure. In the process she discovers that the journey itself leads her right to the heart of God. The Bible says that God is Love (1 John 4: 8). Genesis tells us that God created us in His image, Love. Thus, it should be safe for us to conclude that it would only be thru genuine love relationships that we will truly flourish in joy and experience personal contentment. The abundant life for us is to begin with knowing and loving and submitting to God. Our next priority is to love others (Matthew 22). If married, loving others begins with husband and wife intimately loving, submitting to and extending grace and forgiveness to each other, to such extreme as to become as "one flesh". The purpose of this workbook is that married couples would experience a joy that can only be discovered by daily-actively placing your love relationship with your spouse above all else except your love relationship with God. God will help as we persist in pursuing a deeper understanding of His love for us. Jesus exclaims I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. We have integrated communication skills which will take you gently-gradually into deeper and wonderful intimacy with each other and with God. God, Love, is gentle, patient, kind, forgiving, full of grace. In 1960, the wealthy owner of the Merseyside-based Littlewoods corporation, John Moores, took control of Everton Football Club, setting in motion a chain of events that still affect the game in this country today. Everton had enjoyed success before Moores's takeover but things would never be the same again from the moment he walked through Goodison's doors. Although big clubs had spent money before, none had done so with such naked short-term ambition and a ruthlessness to succeed that sent shockwaves through the previously stagnant world of English football. The new owner's ruthless streak was personified by his first major move, sacking the popular Johnny Carey in the back of a

London taxi in April 1961. Everton would finish that 1960/61 season in fifth place, their highest position since World War Two, but the Irishman's affable nature cost him his job. In his place Moores wanted a man in his own image to lead the club forward and he soon found him: Harry Catterick. Catterick was little over 40 years old, and had been an Everton player himself only ten years before. But as a boss he exuded an aura that demanded respect and obedience from his players. It was a characteristic that won him few fans but plenty of trophies, and across the decade Everton reasserted themselves as one of English football's powerhouses, winning two league titles and an FA Cup. Catterick's ability to nurture young products of the club's youth set-up such as Colin Harvey and Joe Royle was trumped only by his mastery of the transfer market, allowing him to sign the great Howard Kendall from Preston North End and World Cup winner Alan Ball from under his rivals' noses. Harvey, Kendall and Ball would soon form the club's greatest midfield trio, and their brilliance would underpin the 1969/70 title win, a victory for free-flowing football in an era of cynicism. That trophy would be Everton's last major honour for 14 years. In Money Can't Buy Us Love, Everton's official statistician Gavin Buckland tells the tale of how Moores and manager Harry Catterick took the so-called 'Mersey Millionaires' to the summit of English football, in the context of the major cultural changes of the time. The book provides a forensic character study of both Catterick and Moores, and also delves into the archives to provide a definitive account of the incidents that rocked the club in a fruitful but turbulent decade, including allegations of doping in the 1962/63 campaign, the 1964 match-fixing scandal which signalled the end of Tony Kay's career and the shock sale of Alan Ball. Money Can't Buy Us Love offers fascinating insight into how strong personalities can take a team to the very top, but can also cause in its ultimate downfall. New York Times bestseller What is Jesus worth to you? It's easy for American Christians to forget how Jesus said his followers would actually live, what their new lifestyle would actually look like. They would, he said, leave behind security, money, convenience, even family for him. They would abandon everything for the gospel. They would take up their crosses daily... But who do you know who lives like that? Do you? In Radical, David Platt challenges you to consider with an open heart how we have manipulated the gospel to fit our cultural preferences. He shows what Jesus actually said about being his disciple--then invites you to believe and obey what you have heard. And he tells the dramatic story of what is happening as a "successful" suburban church decides to get serious about the gospel according to Jesus. Finally, he urges you to join in The Radical Experiment -- a one-year journey in authentic discipleship that will transform how you live in a world that desperately needs the Good News Jesus came to bring. There is something very purposeful and specific about the aspects of prayer. Many believe that any and every one can pray to God and that He will hear them. Unfortunately for many, that is not the case. The Bible shows the primary requirement to be in communication with God is to be His child. Romans 8:14-17 and 10:9-19 clearly expresses what it means and exactly how to be a child of the Lord. Once Christ is accepted into our lives, we have become His children and we begin to experience a true love for God. As God gives you a new heart, you begin to truly understand and appreciate all that He did on the cross. This will cause a devotion and a love for Him that you never knew you would experience. Due to that love that you now have for God, that is when prayer takes effect in your relationship with Him. Prayer is our love language to God. Once we have accepted Christ, His Spirit now lives inside of us. God is love and because of that, when we are led by His Spirit, our actions are done from a place of love. 1 John 4:8 tells us that it is because of knowing God that we even know what love is. In prayer, we are to be led by His Spirit as we communicate with the essence of love with Him. Just like any relationship we care for deeply, God is wanting us to spend time in prayer (communication) with Him. In doing so we grow to know His voice without doubt which makes following in His will more obtainable. This particular reading will explain the correct process of obtaining a lucrative fruitful and exciting prayer life. Prayer is something we have to learn and be taught to do. Jesus taught His disciples how to pray and presented them with the recipe in Matthew 6:5-16. The disciples needed to learn how to pray correctly and effectively as well. If you don't want your praying to be in vain, you must be taught to pray correctly and effectively as well as having a willing mind to learn. One must learn to pray in sincerity and in truth."... The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16 This book is solely about the most important thing needed in our relationship with God which is prayer. It is not about the gift of speaking or praying in tongues. We first need to understand prayer and its significance before we can introduce the gifts that the Lord gives. It is important to remain focused on God and the true privilege it is to be able to communicate with Him before being gravitated by the gifts He provides. God said if my people would pray and this book will help God's people to do just that. "Let Love Lead" is thought-provoking, spiritually enlightening and hopefully encouraging. While written during a time of political chaos and civil unrest, the title could have easily been no love, no justice, no peace. If the opposite of love is hate, then the absence of God can produce the same. In summary, the book embraces the all-encompassing meaning of the phrase "God is love." God Is Love will never be just another feel-good slogan despite how hearing it makes us feel good. The pages contained within demonstrate how God's love must be applied to every area of our lives, especially marriage and family, which is the foundation of our existence. God's love must be extended to our neighbor, coworker, customer, and enemy, which produces the basic concept of who God is. Mark 12:30-31 tells us to "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength, love your neighbor as yourself. There are no commandments greater than these" (NIV). When we allow God to lead, his love is manifested in everything we do, every conversation, every action, and every reaction. God's love is never based on skin color, material possessions, money, educational status, job title, physical features, fraternity or sorority, political or professional affiliation, or talent. Hate is so prevalent in the world today; only love (God) can conquer hate. A revelation of who God is and who he created humanity to be versus what it has become is crystal clear from the cover to the last chapter. Every human being is born with the capacity to both experience and extend love, but sympathy, concern, hunger for life, lusting, wanting, and needing are emotions that have always been confused with real love, which must begin with God. The ability to love like God loves comes when a spiritual relationship is established with the creator. God's love is the picture of a Shepherd's love; it commits, provides for, takes care of, communicates to listen, seeks to understand, and never ends. The Bible assures us that "God's love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things" (1 Corinthians 13:7 KJV). Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this, the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him" (1 John 4:7-9 ESV). God is love... Let Love Lead. Hailed as "the most radical repackaging of the Bible since Gutenberg", these Pocket Canons give an up-close look at each book of the Bible. How much control do we have over love? Much less than we like to think. All that mystery, all that poetry, all those complex behaviors surrounding human bonding leading to the most life-changing decisions we'll ever make, are unconsciously driven by a few molecules in our brains. How does love begin? How can two strangers come to the conclusion that it would not only be pleasant to share their lives, but that they must share them? How can a man say he loves his wife, yet still cheat on her? Why do others stay in relationships even after the romance fades? How is it possible to fall in love with the "wrong" person? How do people come to have a "type"? Physical attraction, jealousy, infidelity, mother-infant bonding—all the behaviors that so often leave us befuddled—are now being teased out of the fog of mystery thanks to today's social neuroscience. Larry Young, one of the world's leading experts in the field, and journalist Brian Alexander explain how those findings apply to you. Drawing on real human stories and research from labs around the world, The Chemistry Between Us is a bold attempt to create a "grand unified theory" of love. Some of the mind-blowing insights include: Love can get such a grip on us because it is, literally, an addiction. To a woman falling in love, a man is like her baby. Why it's false to say society makes gender, and how it's possible to have the body of one gender and the brain of another. Why some people are more likely to cheat than others. Why we sometimes truly can't resist temptation. Young and Alexander place their revelations into historical, political, and social contexts. In the process, they touch on everything from gay marriage to why single-mother households might not be good for society. The Chemistry Between Us offers powerful insights into love, sex, gender, sexual orientation, and family life that will prove to be enlightening, controversial, and thought provoking. C.S. Lewis's famous inspirational work on the nature of love. "God is love." This is one of the most popular truths of the Bible, we quote this scripture, but often we are void of the revelation of His love. 1 John 4:8 declares that love is the nature of God and he is the source of love. My emphasis - We talk about topics like healing, deliverance, anointing, prosperity, and we all respond fully. But when we talk about love, not so many Christians are enthusiastic about it because we think we already know all there is to know about love. However, if we truly understand the love of God and walk in that revelation, it will bring about a radical change in our lives and in our society. There will be no sick or poor person among us. And we will receive answers to our prayers. The knowledge of God's love will affect you in three ways, 1. In the way you see God, 2. In the way you treat others, and 3. In the way you see yourself. This book will show you how to break through the life-limiting barriers of loneliness, fear, doubt, rejection, and depression. My prayer for you is that after reading this book, you will never question God's love for you, but rather you will seek to know more about him.
